

Please direct inquiries to:

[Name retracted]

555-555-5555

[email retracted]

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: December 1, 2010

[COMPANY RETRACTED] NOW AVAILABLE FOR U.S., CANADIAN DRIVERS

NEW YORK – [COMPANY RETRACTED], one of the world's leading car hire companies, has announced a new partnership that will allow it to sell to license holders in the United States and Canada.

The company is partnering with [COMPANY RETRACTED], a U.S. car hire business based in [CITY RETRACTED]. In the past, U.S. and Canadian license holders could not book on [WEBSITE RETRACTED], and so the agreement has the potential to greatly expand the company's reach.

"We are absolutely thrilled to be opening this tremendous new market in North America," said [NAME RETRACTED], Managing Director of [COMPANY RETRACTED]. "With this partnership, our company will be able to offer its wide array of outstanding services to more customers who need quick, easy and dependable car rentals."

With over 500 locations across the United States, [COMPANY RETRACTED] aims to help travelers get to their destinations with as little hassle as possible. Its website, [WEBSITE RETRACTED], is designed to offer the best available prices through first-class suppliers like Alamo, Dollar, Budget and more, with no hidden costs.

The company also offers special deals such as unlimited mileage, free one-way rentals and no collision damage or theft excess, which can be of great help, especially when traveling during the holidays.

"We invite our new customer base to book online with us, and when they do, they will work with a friendly sales team that will help them along every step of the way," [NAME RETRACTED] said. "Our priority is to help people make traveling simpler, and our staff does a great of working toward that goal every day."

[COMPANY RETRACTED] accepts all major credit cards in many different types of currencies through a secure and completely confidential encrypted payment system. To get started, visit [WEBSITE RETRACTED].

###