Kayu Bamboo Sunglasses

Audrey Hepburn made oversized shades cool. Jami Lyn is making them altruistically chic. Lyn's new sunglass line, Kayu (Indonesian for wood), is the epitome of ecological and ethical eyewear. Lyn's glasses are handcrafted by artisans using pesticide-free bamboo. Plus, $50 of every pair purchased is donated to fund sight-restoring surgery in the third world. Who needs rose-colored glasses when you can get a pair that really does good? Sit back and enjoy the glamorous guilt-free view.

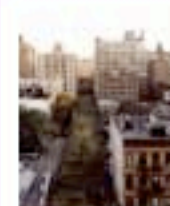

Snag your own pair at Kayudesign.com.
